

“Get Up On The Raft”

For years it was smooth sailing with the waters calm
Then the ship starts failing, I was headed for a storm
Before I could even fear it or think of what to say
I'm standing in the shadows of the rising waves
I took a cold hard pounding, blow after blow
Tragic as a shipwreck, I was going down slow

I guess love doesn't last
So let's climb up on the raft
We'll never make it on our own
I don't want to drown alone
The waves rise up and crash
There's always a raft
So let's climb up on the raft
And have ourselves a laugh
Who cares when we'll run ashore
We're not drowning anymore
It's not like you knew the last time
Or the time before

Somewhere below the waves sway ropes that broke and frayed
Still tied to our anchors, right where they were laid
Now if this stays afloat then I'll call it a boat
I'm not desperate but I guess that I could use some hope

Well, love never lasts
But it always leaves a raft
So let's climb up on the raft
And have ourselves a laugh
If we run ashore I'll just like you all the more
I'd rather be shipwrecked together
Than on the ocean floor
Love never lasts
So let's climb up on the raft
We'll never make it on our own
I don't want to drown alone
When waves come up and crash
Then there's always a raft
I know we're both raw and wet
And it's as good as it gets I'm so glad that you're here
Hold onto me my dear
Just forget the past
Cuz' now we're on the raft

“Hit Me Again”

Sometimes you got to get up before the sun
You're so tired but you know you got to get it done
The sky's still black as coffee coming up to your lips
It tips, you take a sip

Day might break but I won't bend
So hit me again, again
Day might break but I won't bend
So hit me again, again, again, again
I, I just take it in stride
And here we go again, again, again,
Here we go again, again, again.

The sun hits the curtains like the landlord peeking in
I'm cold and stiff as the car seats at six a.m.
Got your head on the grindstone
Peddle as fast as you can
I'm not a morning person but on the nightshift
I'm your man

Day might break but I won't bend
So hit me again, again
Day might break but I won't bend
So hit me again, again, again, again
I, I just take it in stride
And here we go again, again, again,
Here we go again, again, again.
Day might break but I won't bend
So hit me again, again
Day might break but I won't bend
So hit me again, again, again, again
again, again, again, again

“Demolition”

I made these walls come tumbling down
I think I kicked every brick on the ground
I'll build it better, make it bigger some how
With beads of sweat still on my brow
Like solder. Beads like solder
Beads like solder. Beads of solder

Like a bell sends a chill through the air
Still and thin as the din of my stare
These walls were cold and getting old, I know
For so long they just echoed, echoed, echoed.

Though I flirt with hurt for now,
These beads of solder still on my brow
Will weld a seal and forge my crown
For the king that tore his kingdom down
Like a marauder, I'm a marauder
It was a slaughter. I think we got her.

You'll never fly with the weight of dead wings
And I guess every mess means something
Pieces of bricks lay thick on this new ground
Tempered my fist as they hammered down

Just a grin through the dust of trouble
And I win though my trust is rubble
A king is still a king without his castle

Break the mortar. Break the mortar
Break the mortar. There's no boarders
Break the mortar. We're starting over
Break the mortar. Break the mortar
Break the mortar. There's no boarders

“I Came To Fall”

I'm first in line
So get behind
I came to fall
I wouldn't mind
I came for mine
Through thorn and vine
I came to fall
I've come to find
It's just the blind leading the blind

Don't worry just remember
We're all in this together
I came to fall
I came to fall

I'm wasting time
You're wasting mine
I'll waste you all
So get in line
We're gonna' fall
Like lemmings do
Cuz' after one
There's always two
And after all
I came to fall

Don't worry just remember
We're all in this together
I came to fall
I came to fall

Isn't this fun?
Get in line
You're only one step behind
I came to fall
I came for mine
You're only one step behind

Don't worry just remember
We're all in this together
I came to fall
I came to fall

“Tracing The Shape”

I think you've been wrong for so long you think it's right
If you were strong, would you change with all your might?
Since you've been gone, I've grown and I know what's right

I've been tracing the shape of your number on my phone
And if it wasn't late, I'd call just to let you know

You're colorful
But all the colors mix to black
So wonderful
Knowing that you won't come back
I know you planned what you'd say
You took time to think about it
And lying is your grace
And I know what you'd be without it.

You should have your mouth bronzed
Cuz' it's a real work of art
Your lies don't impress
And that's why we're apart

I've tracing the shape
Where your knife cut at my heart
And isn't it great,
It never touched a single part

“The Wind”

The wind that blows
Right in my windows
I drive alone.

I came alone
I'll leave alone
I drive home without the radio
Sometimes I'm just not sure
I'm not sure what love is for
A crooked line cut in my hand
My crooked mind can't understand
My love line must not be mine
Cuz my hands are empty all the time

The wind that blows
Right in my windows
I drive alone.

I keep falling
I keep falling for you
But I can't stand it
I've never landed for you.

Driving home I'm feeling alone
Got a message on my cell phone
You're still up for an hour or two
Call you up if I want something to do
My headlights looking up your drive
Park the car and I'm waiting outside
The door opens, I'm looking at you
And I think I'm seeing something to do
I came alone
I leave alone
Driving home without the radio
Sometimes I'm just not sure
I'm not sure what love is for

“Rivers Slip”

The waters moving too fast
The ground washes away
And when a snake goes
It never goes straight
You watch the shores erode
The currents grow
God only knows
Where it goes

Well you can jump on in
Or let it capture you
No matter what you do
It's gonna come for you
For you, for you, for you

Grab for a rope
Short in your hand
Rivers slip through every man
Why even tighten your grip?
I know you're trying to
It's not fighting you
It's just guiding you

We're like ghosts and
We're all floating
Wash the colors from our hair
Waters rising above the horizon
No time, no sign, no deciding

Flowing through your hand
Mountains turn to sand
Where no flags could stand
That river's ran
What makes you think
You'll be the last to go
Cuz when you drink
You'll be the last to know
Oh open your hand
The ropes not buying you
Any time to do
What you got to do
To do, to do, to do

I was staring at the water my boat was taking
Time moved slower
You’ll never guess what I thought while I was sinking
“It’s not over”
Wish I hadn’t traded my life vest for a four-leaf clover
But at the time getting lucky seemed like survival
But I didn’t know her

It’s not over
It’s not over
Until both sides say that it’s over
It’s not over

I thought I was smart, thought I had a few things
I could show her
But I wasn’t thinking, I was too distracted
Looking her over
It’s funny when you find yourself begging
Standards lower
But I still stopped to watch when she was packing her things
To watch her bend over

It’s not over
It’s not over
Until both sides say that it’s over
It’s not over

You left breathless
You left restless
On blocks and four rims
You left me for him
Left my heart thundering
Left my mind wondering

If it’s over
Cuz it’s not over
Until both sides say that it’s over

“Things Have Changed”

I won't run from these things that aren't chasing me yet
I'd never win if they were close behind on my heels on my mind
When I saw you, I knew that they weren't that far behind

I won't be the one that's on the run, oh yeah
I want to live these days not be the haze that sits
So what's done is done
Oh has it come to this?

Every morning I wake on the rocks all wet
I'm glad I'm alive
I won't hide a shipwreck
Have I washed ashore yet?
I'm not running
I blame the waves that brought me here

And I'm not the one that taught the sun to set
And now that night has come, try to sleep in your new bed
Walk down the street but keep your feet under your head
I'm here but I'm not there and I swear I won't forget

I'm sorry, I'm not to blame
I can't help it. Things have changed
Things have changed that's all
But I know that it's okay
Things have changed, that's all
But I know that it's okay
Things have changed, that's all
But I know that it's okay
Things have changed, that's all
But I know that it's okay
Things have changed, that's all

“Let’s Shine”

In Autumn, the bottom, the end, the cure
I go, but I know I’m taking her
If I could win, then I’d begin
She’ll never see
We’ll never be pure
If ever a time, I know I needed her
It’s right now. Right...
Right now. Right...

(Look at me, alone, sitting here thinking about you all alone
Somewhere, maybe you’re thinking of me)

So let’s shine
The moment your heart hesitates
So let’s shine
Your heart stops shining, shining.

(Look at me, alone, sitting here thinking about you all alone
Somewhere, maybe you’re thinking of me)

So let’s shine
The moment your heart hesitates
So let’s shine
Your heart stops shining, shining.

(Look at me, alone, sitting here thinking about you all alone
Somewhere, maybe you’re thinking of me)

“I’m Not Ready”

Yesterday came around and I should have seen it coming
First the phone then your voice and then in my head, I’m humming
Melodies brought to me by my simple heart just trying
It’s easy to see now that my tears are drying

I’m not ready and I won’t think it over
Hold me steady cuz I’m a love-torn soldier
I’m not ready but I’m going to win you over
I’m not ready but I’m going to win you over

I’m out of tricks, got no sleeves to even hide a card in Got no words that could say it the right way, so why begin?
What can I say to lure you? Is it enough just to adore you?

I’m not ready, so why think it over
Hold me steady cuz I’m a love-torn soldier
I’m not ready but I’m going to win you over
I’m not ready but I’m going to win you over

Thought I had given up
Thought I was out of bounds
But I’m just waking up
I’m up now...
Still feel a little tired
Feel a little unsure
But I remember
What my heart is for
It’s already been broken
Can’t be broken anymore.

I’m not ready and I won’t think it over
Hold me steady cuz I’m a love-torn soldier
I’m not ready but I’m going to win you over
I’m not ready but I’m going to win you over

“Light of Day”

I know that it's much too late
But I'll say this anyway
You were like the sun to me
I haven't seen day since you shined on me

Dry as chalk writes my regrets
Wishing that my words were wet
Showing you what I'd never let
But watch what you give cuz
That's what you'll get

It's hard to talk about regrets
I guess that silence says it best

I know there's no need to confess but I'll admit it was a mess
True colors show when times grow dim
I haven't seen day since you shined on him

Bring me back to the light of day
Bring me back to the light of day
Look me in the eyes and say
That you're happier this way

It's hard to talk about regrets
I guess that silence says it best

Nothing moves to change my mind
As my days drag back in time
The moon just stares so awkwardly
I haven't seen day since you shined on me
Take me back to the light of day
Take me back to the light of day
Take me back to the light of day
Take me back to the light of day

“Exhibits”

You say the sun has never met me in it's life
My words are pale, my face only comes out at night
It doesn't matter how I choose to use my days
You're like a bird that grew until it flew off with it's cage

I don't wanna, I don't I don't wanna
(It'd be good for you to get out of your room)

It makes no difference, It don't matter all the same
If you go unseen or go on holiday in Spain
And maybe paradise is just avoiding the sane
Or maybe I just hide, I can't decide, I can't complain

I don't wanna, I don't I don't wanna
And look at all the stars turning around
And we're just little ants stuck on the ground
Nothing really matters until it's found
I don't need a night out on the town
We're just a phase of life, not long from now
We'll all just be fossils underground
And when our bones are stones just breaking down
And black holes chew us up and spit us out
I don't care if I could use more sun
Cuz soon it will devour everyone
The big pictures bigger than our words
Even if we had them, they're unheard
The only thing that we can really trust
Is dark energy and frozen dust

Don't ask the moon, it's drifting farther away
So say goodbye to our ocean's tides cuz they won't stay
I'm hoping to confuse the future's archeologists
When we're all gone who will dig us up and Turn us into exhibits?

“Safe and Nowhere”

I hear the rain dripping from the roof to the ground
I'm staying in bed cuz I'm in love with the sound
No direction found
No direction found

I love it when a Sunday has no sun
I'm staying in bed cuz my head weighs a ton
Before I start I'm done
If I lose today I've won

Cuz a dark room always seems to enlighten me
Find comfort, find your peace
I can't move and I can't speak
I don't care if the daylight peeks
Through the cracks in the curtains

I hear the phone ringing in the other room
I can't rise from dead cuz my bed is a tomb
Safe in my cocoon
No plans on leaving soon

And I'm not taking part
No one can have my heart
I'm safe and nowhere
My head just feels too large
Until the batteries recharge
I'm safe and nowhere
I'm too tired to sleep
And the blankets are too deep
I'm safe and nowhere
It feels good just to press pause
Cuz gravity has laws and they're weighing heavy on me

“You’re an Arrow”

You’re an arrow
When the bow pulls you back and lets go
Where will you go, arrow?

You’re an arrow
Without care, taking air like a sparrow
Where will you go, arrow?

Straight for the heart of a lover?
Into the backs of your foes?
You decide where you’re gonna fly
You’re an arrow

You’re an arrow
When you fly, no bullseye’s too narrow
Oh there you go, arrow

You’re an arrow
The archer aims but you’ll be claimed the hero
Aim high or low, arrow

There’s targets all around you
Hidden ones that no one knows
You decide what you’re gonna find
You’re an arrow
You’re an arrow
